

Do not deregulate the broadcast media any more than it is.
Democracy stands for freedom of the airways and not who has the most money to buy the little guy out and develop a monopoly of free speech. Let the little business be heard